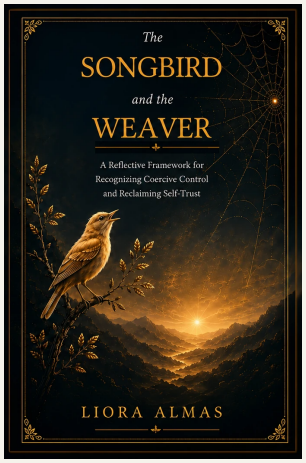
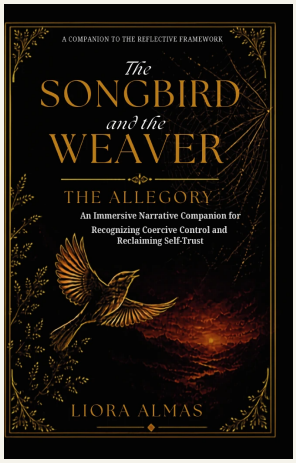
THE BLOOM UMBRELLA™

FOR ORGANIZATIONS

The Songbird and the Weaver

A discussion guide for clinics, shelters, educators and community teams





TWO COMPLEMENTARY BOOKS

A reflective framework for recognizing coercive control and reclaiming self-trust, with an allegory companion by Liora Almas.

They ranked #1 and #2 in Amazon.ca Hot New Releases for Domestic Partner Abuse on September 26 and remained there on September 27, 2026.

POTENTIAL USES

Individual reading, facilitated discussion, staff reflection and education on relational control. Settings can assess suitability, accessibility and safeguarding before use.

ORGANIZATIONAL ACCESS UNDER DEVELOPMENT

Solo practice	A small number of named professionals and defined client handout use.
Small teams	Staff access across a limited number of sites and approved handouts.
Institutional	A tailored scope for multiple sites, training needs and systems integration.

WHAT AN ENQUIRY CAN COVER

Seats, locations, permitted client handouts, renewal, accessibility, training and optional customization. Scope and pricing are discussed individually; no license is offered by this sheet.

Start an organizational conversation

Visit thebloomumbrella.com/organizations and use the enquiry form.

Please do not include client names, case details or safety plans in an enquiry. These books are educational and reflective; they do not replace individualized clinical, legal or safety support.

Return to The Bloom Umbrella website